

Wildflowers for Shade

Use Prairie Nursery's woodland wildflowers in areas too shady for lawn!

Species	Preferred Shade Conditions	Soil Type Required
Alum Root	Full sun to dry woodland edges	Dry in shade, medium to moist in full sun
Bergamot	Full sun to open woodlands	Dry to slightly moist
Birdsfoot Violet	Full sun to medium shade	Dry sandy to medium
Blue False Indigo	Full sun to medium shade	Dry to medium in shade, medium in full sun
Cardinal Flower	Full sun to medium shade	Rich, moist
Columbine	Dappled sun, to semi-shade	Well-drained
Cream False Indigo	Full sun to light shade	Well-drained
Culver's Root	Full sun to medium shade	Medium to moist
Cupplant	Full sun to medium shade	Moist soil, and well-drained clay
Great Blue Lobelia	Full sun to medium shade	Rich, moist
Green-headed Coneflower	Full sun to light shade	Rich, moist
Harebell	Full sun to semi-shade	Dry, sandy or rocky
Jack in the Pulpit	Medium to full shade	Well-drained to wet
Jacobs Ladder	Dappled sun to full shade	Rich, well drained to slightly damp
Lavender Hyssop	Full sun to semi-shade	Well-drained
Marsh Marigold	Full sun to medium shade	Rich, wet
Meadowrue	Full sun to woodland edges	Slightly moist to wet
New Jersey Tea	Full sun to open woodlands	Well-drained
Pale Indian Plantain	Full sun to medium shade	Rich, moist
Purple Coneflower	Full sun to woodland edges	Medium in full sun; well-drained in shade
Shootingstar	Full sun to medium shade	Dry to medium in shade; medium to moist in full sun
Sky Blue Aster	Full sun to woodland edges	Dry to slightly moist
Slender Penstemon	Full sun to dry open woodlands	Dry in sun or shade
Smooth Penstemon	Full sun to woodland edges	Dry in shade, medium in full sun
Spiderwort	Full sun to woodland edges	Slightly moist to wet
Sweet Black-eyed Susan	Full sun to woodland edges	Rich, well-drained
Sweet Joe Pye Weed	Full sun to medium shade	Rich, moist
Turk's Cap Lily	Full sun to medium shade	Dry to moist
White False Indigo	Full sun to dappled shade	Rich, moist
White Turtlehead	Full sun to semi-shade	Moist in full sun, dry to medium in shade
Wild Geranium	Full sun to medium shade	Well-drained
Woodland Sunflower	Full sun to woodland edges	